NUS Blockchain Pitch Night

Judge

Prof Edward Tay holds a multifaceted role in the world of academia, technology and entrepreneurship.

As an Associate Professor (Practice) at the United Nations Institute of Training & Research, he combines his academic expertise with practical insights. Prof Edward is also appointed as the Ambassador for the Singapore Week of Innovation and Technology for 2023 & 2024, further showcasing his commitment to fostering innovation.

A prolific speaker in tech industry, he also serves as the Honorary Treasurer of SGTech Singapore Enterprise Chapter, lecture in the Master of Science (Venture Creation) Programme at NUS and mentored many deep tech startups' founders.

Prof Edward's remarkable track record includes nurturing and investing in four deep tech unicorns, spanning across diverse sectors such as AI, Ecommerce and Foodtech.